In the Wake of the Game By GUS MALBERT

For the first time this season we are called upon to welcome Buck Pressly and his carnivorous Tigers, champions of the Virginia League in 1912 and leaders in the race up to the present time. These Tigers, from Rosnoke, since leaving home, have met with varying fate, though of the six games thus far wafted into the discard, four have been won. Petersburg lost the entire three games to Pressly without scoring once in twenty-seven innings of play. Lee Garvin furnished the real set back thus far encountered, grabbing two out of three for himself.

Pressly apparently has a grand bail club. He has added several new names, and in Irmscher and Blausser has jwo ball players of unquestioned ability. But his path has been comparatively easy. Of the games credited to him seven have come from Petersburg; Newport News came across with five out of sx scheduled, one game being post.

Pressly apparently has a grand bail club, He has added several new names, and in Irmscher and Blausser has two bail players of unquestioned ability. But his path has been comparatively easy. Of the games credited to him seven have come from Petersburg; Newport News came across with five out of six scheduled, one game being postponed because of rain. Norfolk has given up two, and Richmond and Portsmouth one each. Newport News and Petersburg together have furnished twelve out of the six teen victories. In the case of Newport News the victories came before Newport News had a ball club. The Magic Clty club seems to have the Goobers' goat, much in the manner that Petersburg flaunts a high old Jinx in the face of the Colts. Norfolk is apparently in a rut, and Shaffer must talk to his men to get them out.

But that isn't the point. The real gist of

But that isn't the point. The real gist of all this figuring is that Roanoke must show more class before being haled as a two-time pennant winner. Since the Coits took two in Roanoke, it is reasonable to suppose that they will do the same here, provided Griff is able to send out his strongest front. With the exception of Petersburg the Tigers have beaten no club which has a right to expect to land in the first division. On pitching material Pressly is shy, and he doubtless knows it. Jap Effed, Bert Gardin and Brown will not win him a pennant in spite of the rest of his club. But he is up there, and the doctor knows how to keep his men fighting, which means almost as much as ability.

which means almost as much as ability.

If, as Griff expects, John Raley is able to get back to-day, the team will once again look natural. Sieve is not fit, and his thumb prevents him from gripping his war club with that degree of confidence he shows when he is right, But he will be in there, and Laval will be back in right, Just who will appear on the mound is much of a mystery. Strain will hardly be asked to start, even though he pitched but one inning in Petersburg. This brings it down to Small-wood and Kenney, in neither of which Steve has any too much confidence. They are both young, and while they have the ability the pschyologic effect of knowing that they are up against a winning ball club may cause their undoing. Doc Ayers and Burleson are out of consideration. Harvey Bussey won his game in Roanoke and may be the final selection, with the two youngsters for relief work should the veteran go bad.

relief work should the veteran go bad.

The series in Petersburg is over and we may contemplate. Busch has not a better club than Griffin, though he won three ina row. Such pitching as Ayers and Burleson produced will win more often than lose. The Colts simply didn't hit, and the crippled condition of the team told. Jay Rogers hasn't the remotest conception of playing the outfield. He is slow, hesitates on returning the ball if he gets his hands on it, and looks as good on fly balls as Ayers does on ground balls, which is not looking any too good. Hill Laval is as energette and as hustling as any young ball player, but at first he can't be expacted to take Raley's place. And Griff was out of the games too. That's the real explanation of the string of defeats. A loss of hitting orbs plus the absence of regulars is a combination hard to evercome, and the remarkable part of it is that they looked as good as they did.

As a matter of fact, the season, which made the contest the standing, which made the contest the season. the standing, which made the contest more exciting, and it took the last frame to decide the winner. The Blancops finally came out victorious by winning two out of three. Captain Lowery played a star game, and finished with high total, while Littlepage ted for high score. Bishop, Farrer, Miller and Valden also did some classy bowling in the series. Scores:

Breaks Shooting Record.

Montgomery, Ala., May 14—The world's record for squad shooting was broken to-day in the professional shooting at interstate associations tournament here, when a total score of 493 out of a possible 500 was made. The shooters were F. G. Bills, W. R. Crosby, Fred Gilbert, J. R. Graham and W. H. Hier, who broke 210 targets straight yesterday, to-day broke 99 out of 100.

The preliminary handicap, in which excellent shooting was done, became a fight between J. K. Warren, of Birmingham, and Ted Alexander, of Chicago, Warren winning by two targets in an extra twenty targets to decide their clean score on the first hundred. The southern handicap will be shot to-morrow, with over 100 contestants.

New York, May 14.—Young Ahearn found little trouble outpointing Al Mc-Coy, of Brooklyn, in their ten-round bout to-night. Ahearn let his opponent do most of the forcing and then made him look foolish in attempting to land.
Young Hickey, of Harlem, outpointed Young McCartney. The winner came through with a rush in the last two rounds.

RETAIL MERCHANTS MEET AT LYNCHBURG

Ninth Annual Convention of Virginia Association Now

If Session.

[Special to The Times Dispatch.]

Lynchburg, Va., May 14.—The ninth annual convention of the Retail Merchants' Association of Virginia began with a business session this morning in the assembly hall at the new Virginian Hotel, and with delegates in attendance from all of the leading cities and towns of the State. The convention will be in session until to-morrow morning, when the reports will be submitted by the committees and the election of officers and time and place for the next meeting selected.

The convention was called to order

Dalias, Tex., May 14.—After choosing Atlanta as the 1914 meeting place over Euffalo, New York and Memphis, Tenn., and electing James Sutton McCandless of Aloha Temple, Honolulu, imperial outer guard, the imperial Council, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, to-day completed its labors, and the thousands of Shriners turned their weary camels homeward.

The council granted a dispensation to the Mobile, Ala., temple and a charter to Montgomery, Ala.

The election of an imperial outer guard, usually the only contest, as the other members of the imperial divan are advanced one office each year, developed nine candidates, and an election was not had until the third ballot, when Jack Jones, of Oklahoma City, former imperial potentate, withdrew in favor Mr McCandless and made his election certain. The Honolulu man had led in the first two ballots, but lacked the necessary majority.

The warmest contest of the day, however, came with the selection of the

The report of the Committee on Credentials was read by Secretary Clark, and showed that there were about 170 delegates and visitors in attendance upon the convention. Frank H. He asked that two members of the committee be selected from the local association. This motion will be brought up at a later session.

UNDER $200 BOND

Asheville, N. C., May 14—Magistrate M. A. Creasman, who was arrested Monday on the charge of violation of his oath of office for releasing W. S. Adams, the detective, charged with tortouring a negro witness in the John Huff case, was given a preliminary hearing before Judge W. J. Adams in Superfor Court to-day, and was held under a bond of $200 to await the action of the grand jury at the next term of court.

Solicitor Robert R. Reynolds, who prosecuted the case, introduced witnesses to prove that Adams, in audition to torturing the negro Walker in South Carolina, had threatened the negro after his arrival in Asheville in order to get him to acknowledge his signature to the alleged affidavit made in South Carolina, which the negro testified was false.

Creasman on the stand said he felt that Adams had not done anything in this State and that he had no jurisdiction, Judge Adams in holding him to the grand jury held that the action, even if committed in South Carolina, was intended to produce subortination of perjury in this State.
